ABOUT E4EDUCATION

e4education was established in 2001 and over the past 17 years has built up a client base of over 1,800 schools. These are made up of not only primary, secondary, special and independent but also our growing number of trust customers.

It is our mission to help schools succeed by developing software that enhances learning and communication. The education sector has always been at the forefront of our business and we are extremely lucky to be working with some truly remarkable schools.

The education landscape has changed significantly over the past five years. With the changing political landscape comes the change in the ways schools are run, governed and inspected. Our vision is to continue to grow as the leading website design and development provider within the education sector and this role is pivotal to that success.

THE ROLE

As an office-based Sales Executive you will be expected to introduce, sell and effectively demonstrate e4educations broad range of products and services by making pro-active outgoing calls to potential customers and to respond efficiently to those that have enquired with us directly.
